A screenshot of the website 'School Based Apprenticeships &amp; Traineeships in NSW'. The header is a teal and green banner with the title and various icons representing different industries. Below the header is a navigation menu with links for Home, Getting started, School based apprenticeships, School based traineeships, Administration, and Contacts. The main content area features two photographs of students in work environments. To the right of the photos is a section titled 'School Based Apprenticeships and Traineeships in NSW' with a sub-heading 'School Based Apprenticeships and Traineeships'. The text explains that these programs are more than just part-time jobs and are available to all Year 10, 11, and 12 high school students in NSW. It also states that a School Based Apprenticeship or Traineeship combines paid work, training, and school, and that students will gain credit towards the HSC.

Now have fun and see what SBATs may be of interest for you. Go to these links and explore your options. If you find one you like, talk to your Careers Adviser to make the necessary plans to make it happen for you.
